submitted.

It is learnt from the Inspector General's office that in view to secure the service of competent persons for receiving instructions in Anthropometry, the D.S.P. selected Ramachandra Rao a paged candidate from the Police school as one of the officers for that purpose and subsequently appointed him as Anthropometric Inspector, an additional Inspector sanctioned by Govt.

The travelling allowance of Ramachandra Rao may be paged under article 533 of the Pension Service Regulations, the man having been at the time "an extra servant" in the Police establishment for the purpose referred to.

SIR,

In continuation of my letter No. 1481/175 X of the 6th instant, I have the ~~honor to~~ forward herewith the travelling allowance bill amounting ~~to Rs.~~ 124-2-0 on behalf of the 2 marginally noted Police officers, who were sent to Madras for being instructed by the Assistant Inspector General of Police, Mr. Meredith, in taking Anthropometric measurements and finger print impressions &c., and to request that daily batta at 3 Rs. may kindly be sanctioned as a special case to the above individuals, and at annas 6 to the Constable who accompanied them with a view to cover their expenses for carriage, lodging and boarding during their stay at Madras. The amount claimed is only the actual cost of their living at Madras.

2. A bill for Rs. 57-8-0 at the same rate for Sri. Rama Chendra Rao, a passed Candidate of the Police Training School, is also enclosed. As there were no ~~[illegible]~~ other suitable officers

1. Police Inspector Sri. Lakshmanasastri.
2. Chief Constable of the Bangalore City Police, P. J. Sheehan.

officers available, and as Sr. Kamal Kendra Rao is to be provided for in the Police Department at the occurrence of the next vacancy, it was thought desirable to get him also trained in Anthropometry. The bill may likewise kindly be sanctioned as a special case.

I have the honor to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient Servant,

M. Jeevan Rao

Inspector General of Police
